Messages of Condolence

The first girl I kissed. She was Snow White and I had to awaken her. So Miss Robinson told me to kiss her on the forehead as she lay on the platform in the front of the Lost River school. I did. And Leslie and I both blushed in embarrassment. Because the whole school practicing with us, laughed! From then on i kissed her hand. That worked just as well. I think my sister Joyce Johnson will remember Leslie. Joyce was one of the dwarves I think.howardb7@gmail.com
