Messages of Condolence

Dear Esther, Doug and Wendy, Sharon and Ed, Norma and Larry and family's,

Harley and I are so sorry to hear of Byron's untimely passing. We know you will all miss him greatly as will we. We always looked forward to seeing him with Esther at his favorite coffee spot in the Mall on our journeys back to Red Deer. His love for his kids and grand kids will live on forever in each one of them as will all the memories you have Esther.

May you be blessed as you go through the coming days, weeks and years knowing he did not suffer.

Rest in peace dear friend.

Love and many hugs to all of you and your family's..

Helen and Harley

Esther and family - we were so sorry to hear of Byron's passing and wanted to send our sincere condolences on to you all. It is so great that we all were together at Marg and Ted's 50th just a few days before, so everyone had a visit. Look after each other - hopefully soon the happy memories will help ease the pain you will be feeling now.

So sorry to read of Byron's passing. I have fond memories of the Soley family.
My deepest sympathy to Esther and all the family.

Kind regards,

Wealtha
