He was the brother I never had. But he was more than that. Much more. The times we had and the memories we created will last for ever. And we made a lot. And some very special ones. I am so lucky that I got to tell you that I loved you as my brother and that I know you loved me as yours. I know I will see you in the next life. And the memories we will create there will be just as special. Until we meet again. RIP Jeremy!!!! I love you bro!!!!

Lyns, Jer's children and family. I am forever grateful to have known Jeremy. I'm sure he has left an impact on so many lives near and far. I cannot express enough words to let you all know that you are in my thoughts and in my prayers. May Jeremy's journey to paradise be as beautiful as his life was. Take comfort in the many memories and cherished pictures. He is always with you in spirit. I have also lost a partner in life, it does not feel the same without him physically here and there is an emptiness that can't ever be filled, but his memory is forever with me. Please take special care of each other in the coming days, I know it'll be especially difficult during the season upon us now. God bless

Lynsay,

My best friend, my sister, my ride or die - I can't express how truly saddened I am to hear about the passing of Jeremy... I'm so heartbroken for you and his children... I remember fondly when we were all in New Orleans for your wedding and one night we were all up hanging out... out of no where Jeremy put Michelle's hair piece on his head and we all laughed so much that was such a fun night and I will never forget a lot of great times we had... RIP Jeremy- Gone but never forgotten...

— Drita Vranica

Sending our condolences to you and your family, Lynsay. You are in our thoughts and we send our love and wishes for the strength to get you through the upcoming weeks and months. Jeremy was a talented and gifted man and will be sadly missed.

Aww Lynsay, our beautiful cherished daughter, our hearts break for you. As your parents we wish we could take away all the pain, but we can only be there for you. You and Jer had so many great memories together : camping, climbing the chief , surfing, concerts, off roading too name only a few. In time all these memories will bring comfort to you. Rest easy Jeremy, you will be missed on the east coast as well as the west

Dear Stapleton Family,

My condolences for your loss of Mr. Jeremy Stapleton. It is very hard to prepare one's mind for the death of a loved one but when it happens suddenly like this, the shock adds to the grief. My heart goes out to his wife and children. The Bible states how ' unexpected events can overtake' anyone, at anytime. When they do happen, God is there to comfort broken hearts (Psalms 147:3). May you receive His comfort at this difficult time.

— Av

It's been almost 5 years Jer since you we're taken from us...I know you thought you had it all taken care of and yet here we are but don't worry we haven't forgotten and we will never forget.
