SYMBALISTY, Katherine

September 21, 2022

Loving mother, Katherine 'Kay' Symbalisty, entered the Lord's presence on September 21, 2022, at the age of 86, only four months after the loss of her beloved husband of 59 years, Morris Symbalisty (96).

Kay was born to Adam & Mary Wabischewich on April 20, 1937, in Stolin, Poland, and immigrated to Canada in 1939, escaping Europe just weeks before World War II broke out. The Wabischewich family established their new farming homestead near Arborg, Manitoba. Upon graduation, Kay had a career as a stenographer to the Minister of Education in Manitoba. Kay was introduced to Morris in 1961 by Helen & Walter Storozuk, and they were married on July 14, 1962, in Winnipeg, Manitoba. In 1978, Kay & Morris moved to Calgary, Alberta, from Thompson, Manitoba.

Kay was passionate about sharing the love of our Lord Jesus Christ. She spent many hours dedicated to prayer and helping others. One of Kay's favourite scriptures was John 14:6 - Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." This was Kay's wish for you to know and accept the love of Jesus into your heart so that you may have eternal life.

She will be lovingly remembered by her children, Donald 'Donny' Symbalisty,

Denise Ward (Gary), and Bruce Symbalisty (Debbie); her grandchildren, Gabrielle & Elizabeth Symbalisty, Emma Symbalisty, Kyle & Rachelle Ward; her beloved brother, Peter Wabischewich; and also numerous nieces, nephews, and friends. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in Kay's name to Crossroads – Life Changing Stories – https://donate.crossroads.ca.

Messages of Condolence

We will miss Kay and Morris so much. They were dear friends

Condolences to the whole family.

— Shirley

To the Symbalisty family: Our deepest sympathy in the passing of your mom. Your mom was kind, caring, compassionate, a woman of faith, loved the Lord, her family and her church. May the many wonderful memories your shared with your mom and dad be of comfort and peace now and in the days ahead. Your mom will be missed by all of you and her friends as well. Your mom and dad were special friends of us. Keeping all of you in our prayers.
Psalm 23
