Messages of Condolence

My deepest condolences to your entire family. I am so honored that I was able to know this man and his kind heart and the love he had for his family. Heaven is receiving an amazing angel. God Bless you all.

— Denise Doiron-Serafini

I am so grateful that we have shared laughter and tears. You always teased me which today I realize it was your way of loving me and my family. You left an imprint in my heart which will last my life time. Thanks for making each visit with you memorable. Thank you for bringing Bertha into my life and my family lives. She continues to show unconditional love where ever it is needed. I will miss you (my Big Brother)
