Messages of Condolence

May every broken heart heal and be filled with memories of Lucille's vibrant, spirited and unapologetic personality. Lucille was never subtle and left an impression everywhere and on everyone. She was remarkably bright, energetic and enthusiastic and lived an active life playing bowling, golf, euchre, horseshoes and cribbage as long as her body would permit her to do so. She was my confident and greatest supporter and continued to surprise me with her extremely empathetic. She always made me feel better after a storm hit. She continually surprised me with her sage advice and wisdom and taught me some of the best lessons for navigating life and it's trials. She was and is my angel
