Terry James Clark

AUGUST 31, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Terry James Clark, beloved husband, father, and friend, who left us surrounded by love.

Terry was the devoted husband of Dana, his partner in life, and the proud father of Leah (Danny) Rodriguez and Bryan (Krissy) Clark. He was also the cherished grandfather of Sophia, Serena, and Elizabeth. Terry shared a special bond with Krissy's children, Joel and Isaiah, His love for his family was boundless, and he treasured every moment with them.

For more than 20 years, Terry dedicated himself wholeheartedly to his career, as a not-for-profit board advisor, where he found both purpose and pride.

A lifelong Vancouver Canucks fan, Terry cheered faithfully through every season, always holding on to the hope of seeing them raise the Stanley Cup. December vacations in the Caribbean became a treasured tradition for Terry and Dana, where they built 11 years of beautiful memories together.

In his later years, Terry found great joy in starting and facilitating a men's discussion group. He loved researching and sharing a wide range of stimulating topics, and the group quickly became a highlight of his life.

Terry will be remembered for his kindness, his generosity, and his ability to connect with others in a meaningful way. He will be missed deeply by all who knew and loved him.

The family kindly requests that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Terry's memory to the North Fraser Therapeutic Riding Association, an organization close to his heart. A private celebration of Terry’s life will be held at a later date.

Messages of Condolence

Mr. Governance.Gonna miss you good buddy. You were a champion of ideas, and a quiet crusader for collaboration and consensus. I'm sure there is more committee work to be done in heaven, where you surely have arrived at. RIPAlan
