

Teresina "Terri" Mae Thompson

MARCH 8, 2017

It is with great sadness that the family of Terri Thompson announces her passing on March 8, 2017. Terri was predeceased by her husband Bob Thompson, parents Bill and Madeline Strandlund, brother Eric Strandlund and sister-in-law Pam Bilyk. Terri is survived by her daughters Kaylee and Karen (Wayne) Hedin; grandchildren Kimberley (Dylan) Weber and Dusten; great-grandson Daxton; as well as numerous extended family members and life-long friends. Funeral Service will be held on Thursday, March 16, 2017 at 2:00 pm in Holy Family Roman Catholic Church, 1021 McCarthy Blvd. N., Regina, SK. Flowers most gratefully declined. Friends so wishing may make donations, in Terri's memory, to the Heart & Stroke Foundation.

Messages of Condolence

Deepest condolences to you Kaylee on the loss of your Mother. Our hearts go out to you as you go through this very difficult time. We will miss your Mom more than words can express. Hugs and love to you. Uncle Dale and Aunt Charlotte

— Dale and Charlotte Strandlund

I remember Terri as a dedicated worker, very knowledgeable and one who would always take time to show me how to do things no matter how long it took. My deepest sympathies to you.

— Cindy Penner

Dear Kaylee and Karen - my deepest condolences on the loss of your mother. Terri was a wonderful person and I enjoyed working with her when she was with Agriculture. So very sad for your loss.

— Anne Slade

My deepest sympathies. I worked with your mom for several years and enjoyed working with her

— Kathy Jones

Kaylee, I was so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. Your mother and I curled together in Regina back in the 1970's and we had a lot of fun together on and off the ice.

— Darlene Metz

Terri you were the best "second mom" and neighbour anyone could have. You were always so welcoming to everyone. You will be greatly missed. Deepest sympathies to you Kaylee and the rest of your relatives. Love you guys.

— Desiree Guillemain
