Messages of Condolence

To Florence’s family,

I am so sad for you all, I wish we had lived closer to each other so we could have spent more time together but it wasn’t meant to be. For a while it looked like she might make a trip back “home” and it would have been so wonderful for our siblings to get together again.

When I called her shortly after Christmas I knew she was very tired but she sounded so upbeat and positive. Sis, you fought a good fight but now it’s time to rest. You will be forever in my heart.

We will all miss her until we meet again.
Love, Aunt Joy
