Bradley Edward Tims

JANUARY 10, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we share with you the passing of Bradley Edward Tims on Friday January 10, 2025, at St Paul’s hospital.

Brad is survived by his wife Astrid May, his sister Ingrid, daughter Brittany, son in law Rob, son Brandon, daughter Nicki and the apple of his eye, his grandson Kingston.

While we mourn Brad’s passing, we celebrate his successful life which was full of hard work and joy. We find comfort in knowing he is somewhere better (probably playing golf) pain free and watching over us. Brad, we love and miss you but know that you will forever be in our hearts.

Rest in Peace

Brad was always such a great (grand) cousin of mine, I was with him maybe 6 or 7 times in my life between 11 and 27 years old, and every time for about a week or so. He was always so happy and smiley and kind and generous, and he had a warm, loving, infectious energy. I loved playing golf and eating in restaurants with him, both in Canada and in the UK, and in the US. I know he's in a better place now, in eternal bliss, and I can't wait to see him again there some day, love to all, Daniel Richardson (and family, Audrey, Collins and Maverick)

Dear Astrid May,
We never got to meet. I live in Guadalupe half the year with my partner. Brad got us the generator when the big storm came in 2019. Brad and I played golf in Vancouver sometimes. I was with him when he had a hole in one at Fraserview. We played a few times at Alta Vista, and he would always point out your home. In fact my partners friend did your daughters make up on those special occasions and pageants.
I last spoke to Brad in October. He told me he was quite sick. I left for Cebu November 1 and only just return to hear this sad news.
He will be missed by all that knew him
I am so sorry for you and the family.
Take good care,
Kurt Louie

Hi Brad, at first I felt cheated because I just so recently got to know you and now all of a sudden you are gone. But then I realized that having the privilege to have known you was in itself a blessing. You were my newest friend in Cebu and I feel terribly sad that we couldn’t get together anymore. To your loving wife Astrid…please accept our deepest condolences and our prayers.

When my golf friend Chris Piala turned 50, he celebrated it in a style like no other. He organized a charity golf tournament in Manila with the proceeds going to his church's orphanage.

Among the 50-plus golfers that participated in the tournanent was Chris's personal friend Brad, hailing all the way from Vancouver. Sanjay, Desmond and l flew in from Singapore and all five of us had dinner together on the night we arrived.

From the outset Brad treated us like old friends, welcoming us with such warmth that made up for the tropical rain that wet night. Born in Kolkata, he made Vancouver his home but also owned property in the Philippines.

Having interacted with him over just the few days in April of 2023, l cannot claim to know Brad very well. But l will have a lasting impression of him as a bon vivant golfer, with lots of stories to entertain and amuse, lighting up the spirits of the company he is in.

My condolences to the Tims family for their loss. And my thanks to Chris for the pleasure and the honour to have met Brad.

Rest in heavenly bliss, Brad.

Brad, I did not know you for long but the time we all spent on Holiday in Goa brings back many memories! Plus the fun and laughter at the bungalow at dinner time, just made the trip so special! Gone too soon but not forgotten.. Rest in Eternal Peace

May the Tims Family be that much richer for having the Lasting and Unforgettable Memories of a Husband, Father, Brother, Uncle, Granddaddy and Friend that he graced unconditionally with endless Love.

I feel privileged at having met Brad through his Mama, “Bubbles”, Cecilia.

I was grateful to be part of the celebration of life for Brad. As a member of our Thursday golf group “YVR” Brad brought so much color to our group, both in personality and his iconic golfing attire. Brad had as many opinions as he did vibrant golf shirts, and his lively spirit—on and off the course—will be deeply missed. Stay on the short grass, my friend.”

It is with the heaviest of hearts and shock as Mum and I console Brad's collective family and friends. We knew Brad when he, Rudy Polacco (RIP) and my father, Donald organized parties for the A-1 Cultural Club in the early eighties. Upon my father's passing, Donald Todd (RIP), Brad very kindly took it upon himself to help my Mum drive Daddy's car while forever holding onto the passenger seat white-knuckled! You were full of fun, kindness, and a grand sense of humour Brad. You're golfing with the angels and watching over your beloved family and friends as we all mourn you. May Our Lord keep you close as you surrender to painless, peaceful rest.
Our collective condolences
Lorelei and Mrs Leonie Todd (Mum)

Brad will be remembered for his big heart and his love for golf. I'll cherish the laughs we had while cheering to beers, and our many conversations about real estate, our beloved KC Chiefs, and sports in general. And I'll remember Brad's patented tune of "teetle lee tee" that he always sang while on the golf course. We will miss you buddy!
