I did not know you but I have felt your pain and torment. I too know the consequence of one impulsive decision, moment and how it effects the rest of your life. It saddens me to know you felt so a lone. My hope is your message provokes change. Change for how we relate to the youth of today and tomorrow so they feel safe. I will not forget you and what you taught me. You were a sweet and innocent young girl and you will be missed.
Sending you love,

My heart just broke when I heard the news of this . My daughter also has been bullied and has been in a bad place of mind . These kids will one day realize the pain they caused ,maybe when they have their own kids. I read Amanda had made that video to let people know that bullying can be damaging but you can be strong to overcome it. I read she wanted people to see it and get her message. I think this beautiful young girl has done that and I hope you know Amanda that you have changed the world now . Your Voice has been heard. You will save others with it. Rest in peace my dear. You are missed.

— Brenda Mallinson

May your heart and spirit soar in freedom, peace and ever-lasting beauty. I am so sorry you had to go, but I understanding where you were coming from. Bless you Baby Girl, Bless you so much.

— Joy Perkins Camacho

My heart breaks over and over again everytime I think about what you had to go through, sweet angel. I am a grown woman who has struggled with anxiety and panic disorder and depression since I was 10 years old even up to today so I have an idea of how you felt. Since hearing your story I can't help but to shed tears because my heart is hurting for you even though I didn't even know you. I'm sure you can see and hear the voices of all the peoples' lives you've touched. Because your video sent out such a strong message I've decided to go back to school to become a therapist for teenagers with mental disorders and those that are victims of bullies. My daughters and I have come up with a Pro[mote]-Friendliness ad, meaning to promote a friendly environment, friendly attitudes and friendly behavior to do our part in taking a stand against bullying, all on your behalf. I think you made the impact that you were hoping for and for that We love you Amanda Todd. You are at peace now angel so soar wild and carefree because you deserve it, beautiful angel.

— Launa Reyome

God bless Amanda Todd & her family

— Christian Zacharias

To Amanda's Family - especially Mom and Dad - As God Embraces Amanda in Heaven - She sleeps in peace. Thank You for sharing your daughter - who has now become the Daughter of the World, and woken so many more to dedicate themselves to stop bullying. Your eloquence and dignified way in speaking of Amanda as both her parents has touched millions. To her mom - "she was born into the right family". Those of us who had children who were bullied - unequivocally understand. May Amanda now rest in the arms of continued Love. I will honor her by making a donation to the fund that has been set up in her memory.

— Ev Voykin

Anyone who really knew Amanda could see she was an amazing girl, sweet and kind to anyone who wanted her help. Hearing about what happened broke my heart in millions of pieces she was so young, she didn't deserve any of this. We try to ask ourselves why must this happen why isn't she in our lives anymore, but she will be, she will be with all whom love her, in our hearts and in our minds. though our hearts are broken, we may cry for her everyday, even beg to God for just an opportunity to go back and change something.. we remember that God will watch out for her and she will always be here with us when we close our eyes. We will see Amanda's beautiful smile, and hear her beautiful voice. We will always miss you Amanda.

— jahaziel

Such a strong young girl, no one should go through what she did. The message she left is heartbreaking yet inspirational. RIP Amanda Todd - you deserve to be in a better place, just wish we could of kept you here a little longer. X

— Ian

Some of life's greatest hurts come not from what we have done but what we have failed to do. Have you ever kept silent when you should have spoken up to defend a friend or classmate? If we want healing, we need to ask for forgiveness for ourselves and for those who have hurt or bullied other.

R.I.P Amanda todd

— Benny Wilcox

although i never personally knew you, after seeing your video blog it made me realize that we know each other well. you and i have lived in our own private hell. i wish your last attempt failed. there are millions of people here that are your friends and are crying and mourning for you like you were there sister, or mother, or daughter. your suicide wasn't an end. it is the beginning of a real campaign to crack down on pervs and haters all over the world! RIP Amanda Todd
Much love to all her friends and family

— Kayla Siegel

I would like the family and friends of Amanda to know that she has touched the hearts of many people, even across the ocean. Bullying is such an important issue and I'm glad you wanted to help people going through the same issues as you. Its just too bad you couldn't live to see what an impact you made.Many people ask why are you getting so much attention when so many young people commit suicide each day.I think yours is just as important as theirs. You grabbed the medias attention, and I hope your story helps people worldwide. So many people don't realize that their words and actions could end someones life.Rest in peace bby.

THE PROOF OF YOUR LOVE
LET MY LOVE LOOK LIKE YOU AND WHAT YOUR MADE OF
HOW YOU LIVED...HOW YOU DIED

May Gods love be with you Amanda...I know what these people did to you was uncalled for and you had to end it all that way even though you didn't have to do it...and remember Amanda until that Day I come to join you...you and I will see Jesus face to face...but until that day Amanda I WILL HOLD ONTO ALWAYS!!! You didn't deserve to be treated that way on Earth!!! And yes Norman and Carol STAY STRONG FOR YOUR DAUGHTER...I STAND BY YOU 100 Per Cent!!!

— Joe Culp

You are an angel that lived too short of a life on this earth because of the ignorance of others. I hope you are in a better place where all the pain is gone. I also hope you can see how important you were to so many people and how you have touched the lives of so many around the world. Your video made me cry the first time I saw it after your death. I just wish the people who had seen it before your death could have helped you realize how beautiful you are. There are some really awful people in this world, just heartless, its so very shocking to me. I am constantly telling my kids not to bully others and that there are many forms of bullying even when its done in "fun" it is still very hurtful to others. My condolences to your family. A parent should never have to lose a child. I pray for strength for them to move forward from this terrible loss. I also pray for the souls of those horrible people who caused you so much pain. God Bless You and may you rest in peace.

— Vicki

Amanda, I hope you find happiness where your spirit is now. Your untimely death has moved millions and it's sad that it took your loss to show the world that bullying is an epidemic. We can only hope that things will change and this world becomes a better place because of you. Rest in Peace - you are everyone's child.

— Airlie

This should have ended much differently!! I am so sad at the loss of Amanda, the pain & emptiness that her family & friends have suffered. It is sad to think that after being beaten down by bullies 40 to 50 years ago, that I live to see all these young people still suffering from bullies. It is time for politicians & teachers, social workers etc. to take this seriously!! Amanda we will not forget you!! You will live on & be a symbol of strength for many battered & bullied people both young & old!! Amanda I am so sorry our world pushed you so far away to help you. God Bless Amanda & her family!! Lets make sure there are no more "Amanda's ".

— Annie Warren

The written word speaks volumes and Amanda seemed to understand that those words she wrote would make a far greater impact than anything she could ever say publically .
What a beautiful young woman she was and she has left a profound legacy behind her . My heart goes out to you , her loved ones .May you find solace in knowing she touched many , many lives .

— Linda

I am so sorry for your loss of your dear daughter Amanda. May you take solace in knowing how far her message has reached and how it resonates everywhere. Bullying has to stop. The only ones now who can end it are we who are left. Amanda is in peace and I hope that one day, you will feel peace in your hearts,too.

— Pat Johnson

May Amanda dance with angels throughout eternity. My prayers are with you . Amanda has left a powerful message.She was a diamond. Let us always remember Amanda by acts of kindness to her memory. One day at a time.

— Elizabeth Cameron

To Amanda's family and true friends, my heart goes out to you for your tremendous loss. To the bullies, get help for your own self esteem and stop hurting others to make yourself feel better. To the bullied, learn something from Amanda, speak out and get the help that you need. Everyone makes mistakes, it's how you deal with them and move on that matters. Stay strong...

— Helen

We are so terribly sorry for the loss of your lovely daughter. We feel that bullying should be treated as a crime-schools are being too lenient with bullies - they treat the situation as if the bully and the victim are equally responsible. We sincerely hope that the people who harrassed Amanda are identified and brought to some kind of justice.

— Bruce & Dawn Mackeigan

Wishing Amanda's family the utmost strength and support. Rest in peace Amanda, you are missed. I was also a victim of online exploitation and bullying. It happens more frequently than people think it does. Young girls need positive programs that build confidence and personal strength. Predators need to be caught. Bullying needs to stop.

— K

Your story touched me deeply and I wish I could turn back time to when all this began years ago! I only wish I saw your video then and left you a message to contact me and I would have done my best to help! God bless you. You were so young and beautiful. My condolences to your loved ones.

— Bobbie Todd

Happy Birthday Amanda. To Amanda's Mom & Dad my condolences on the loss of your beautiful snowflake. If only she knew how important she was to all of us, I hope she is watching the outporing of love for her family and may it bring them peace in their tragic loss.

— Marg Hurley

Amanda, I never met you. But, I feel that if I did I could have helped so much. I know a lot about what you went through. I have been in your shoes with the depression.and a few other things. My heart goes out to your family and friends. May you have a nice stay as you watch over us all in heaven. You will see things change for the better.

— Aaron Schetz

In such a sad event, of a young, Beautiful, promising teenager taking her own life - we have been given the gift to reflect in this act and make a positive change for our youth. Somehow nowadays the world is both more, and less tolerant than in my youth. Acceptance is the key to all life's challenges. If we would have accepted and embraced your story, you may have still been here with us. I vow to accept those around me everyday. Your loss to your family can not be minimized, but your legacy is more than most people can hope to ever accomplish in their lives. Rest in peace and know you literally have made a world of difference.

— Kelly Risebrough

My Deepest Sympathy goes out to the Family of Amanda. Every time I read about her story I fill with tears, and sadness. I do not have any children, but I have two young teenage nieces that I have given Amanda's message to, and they have promised to keep her in their hearts and prayers! She is with God now and I am sure she is looking down at us and smiling, knowing that her message is being heard all over the world. God bless AMANDA and her FAMILY!!

— David

I was horrified by the degree of bullying and completely saddened by Amanda's death. I am a parent of a bullied child. It seems that the schools are unable to help. Amanda's story has touched so many in Canada, possibly some good will come from this tragedy.
My condolences.

— Sonya Wood

They say all rough roads lead to the stars, well i hope she is shinning down on us . may she bloom in Heaven as she did not get the chance to blossom on Earth . They say you can,t sail a ship on yesterdays wind that you have to constantly look for new wind, I pray that she will bring a force of wind down on all of the depressed children and blow them threw their troubles as the love for a life is much greater than most children respect it is beyond the minds eye I pray for all of us on Earth keep your kids close and may she shine us threw are darkest moments

— Ashley Bishop

Amanda's life has touched me so deeply because i know what it's like to feel that your're stuck in the dark and alone. Personally, yes i commited self harm,have anxiety etc. I wish i could've been there for her! It's not fair! Amanda and many others who have been bullied deserve JUSTICE! Amanda seemed like a wonderful person, i hope her story lives on! i hope the family and friends will stay strong

— Shannon Burroughs

You will be so missed Amanda. You have changed this world and your actions can only make it a better place for all of us. Walk with the Lord and shine your light, your courage and your smiles down on us. We will continue to fight for all you believed in. Norman, Carol and Christopher.....may you find comfort in knowing so many care and that your daughters passing will never be in vain. Her beauty and her ways will continue to light this world. She has left us with a very powerful message. She may have struggled in so many ways but in many others she was beyond her time. Always in our hearts Amanda

My heartfelt condolences go out to the Todd family. I would like to share this poem with you.

I AM WITH YOU STILL

I give you this one thought to keep
I am with you still- do not weep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush,
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone -
I am with you still - in each new dawn.

Your beautiful angel is in heaven and a better place. Amanda will be the "change" that will happen.

My love goes out to all of you.

— Angie La Brie

I was so touched and deeply saddened by this story.
I'm so sorry that Amanda experienced so much misery and heartache in her short life. I really hope that more can be done to prevent a tragedy like this happening again. My heartfelt sympathy to her parents, family and friends.Let us all remember to show compassion, kindness and respect to everyone we meet and encounter in our lives. Take care and dear Amanda may you be at peace now sweet girl.

AMANDA TODD!!!! U are a beautiful angel in the sky. When I looked up a picture of u I thought to my self that is the most beautiful girl EVER. Even though me and my sister are not adults we understand that what those ppl did to u was REALLY horrible. Some ppl don't stop and think what u were going through and how it hurt you. I Hurd of this from my friends and they most certainly understud ur pain. This really upsets me that with all the technology now a days ppl still can not take the time to understand what is going on or how it affected that person. But they take the time too look at there screen and understand that they can take a selfie and ppl like it or not and they don't really care what's going on. I think peeps need to respect other ppl and not call them bad names that make them feel worse. I am working on a Singing career and if I get famous then problely the first song I right is about how ppl need to be respectful. AMANDA TODD if I could turn back time and be with u I would help u get through it girl. I pay my respects to Amanda's parents. And girl if I meet u up there then u would be my BFF. WE MISS U GIRL!!!!!!

— Lexi

Amanda Michelle Todd, your story touched me in a way I can not explain. You where a very beautiful girl. If I meet u up in heaven I will tell u this over and over again. U should not have been treated that way. I thought that while u were on earth u were suppose to be treated equal to the ppl around u. But u weren't and I thought that was very sad.we miss u a lot. And to Amanda's parents I think your child should never had to go through that. WE MISS U!!!!! R.I.P.
(I WILL PRAY FOR U TONIGHT)

— Leah

I really wish i had the opportunity to meet Amanda. I wish she would still be with us today. She was a beautiful girl. The first time i watched her video i started to cry. I still cry everytime i watch it. Sorry For Your Loss. Amanda Will always be remembered.

Dear Amanda Todd's Family,

I am so sorry for your loss and Amanda's longing battle against bullying, and the unkind people whom are still probably doing so on other victims until they get attacked by karma. I know I'm still waiting for the karma to get to my bullies, but it's a long wait. Amanda has inspired me to hang on in this cruel cycle my life is spinning in, with no chance to catch a break and just breathe. I am not fully a church person, however I pray. I pray for the souls in need, I pray for the ones that are in need. Your family deserves my endless prayers. I know they wouldn't bring Amanda back, but her soul is at peace. God would not make her suffer. Just like God wouldn't make my dad, my Grandma, pets, loved ones and friends and family suffer. Heaven is peaceful not full of suffering and pain. It is difficult to believe that, but at the same time, hopefully it brings you peace, even for a couple seconds to minutes.

Love, Toni
