Messages of Condolence

Dear Linda,

I am so sad to read about the passing of your husband Bert. I send our deepest sympathy to you, your daughters and their families and I hold you in my thoughts and prayers as you grieve for him.

I do hope that you will find comfort in the Easter promises of God that we will know life everlasting. I also hope that you will find the strength that you need in this journey.

May your many wonderful memories of him comfort you as you celebrate his life.

Blessings to you and all of your loved ones

Fran Cormack

Dear Linda,

Doug and I want to pass along our sympathy to you and your family.

We will be unable to be there for Bert's funeral on Saturday as we have to have a meeting with our family who are coming in from Red Deer.

We will see you in church.

Carol and Doug
