THEY SAY THERE IS A REASON

They say there is a reason,

They say that time will heal,

But neither time nor reason.

Will change how I feel,

For no one knows the heartache,

That lies behind our smiles,

No-one knows how many times,

We have broken down and cried,

We want to tell you something

So there won’t be any doubt,

You’re so wonderful to think of,

But so hard to be without.

You will forever be in my heart, Love Mom

Messages of Condolence

Colton was a great son.
I wish I could have been there for the next 75 years of his life.
I feel robbed.
P.S. All my love John Spence.

Dawn and Family:

Once again my deepest sympathy on the loss of Coltyn. My heart hurts for you all and I can't help but think how unfair this all is. I will keep you all in my prayers.

Hi Dawn

So sorry to hear the news.

I wish I could help and I do wish you well. The process takes time. You need your family and closest friends.

I'm shocked and it's hard to believe. The truth sucks and remember...

That this is a new beginning for your son as he finds his place in heaven.

It's a new beginning for you and those closest to see deep in inside and further our beliefs and our strengths.

The process that has already begun has many faces and it's important to find your way to the next phase as fast and as thorough as possible to ensure good healthy closure and to maintain a positive contact with memories And the spirit of your son.

God Bless
