Thoughts and memories of Florence for over sixty years are with me. She was my mentor in my flower beds and as a new mother learning about my babies and their care, forever full of patience and guidance. She was godmother to our first born baptized in St. Paul's Church. We shared medical experiences that our husbands endured and being next door neighbors meant lots of visiting and sharing.

Although I haven't seen Flo for many years she is forever present in my garden as I strive to meet challenges she would expect from me. A loving, thoughtful and caring friend remembered forever.
