Dear Yvonne, James, Kelly, Eric, and family,

I'm very sorry to hear about Carson. My heart & prayers are with you all. I remember his laughter and big smile and how he made me feel welcome in his family. He certainly had a humorous nature and I'm sure he has all the angels laughing up in heaven. Blessings to you all.

— Kim Graham

My sincere and deepest condolences to you Yvonne, and family. I first met Carson in 1990 when I moved to Vancouver He was my "first" boss. He was so caring, kind and funny. He took me into his home when I was having some personal issues, and I remember him playing guitar there. I'll never forget taking a turtle into his office at the Burnaby shelter to get help identifying whether it was a turtle or a tortoise. It (bit)latched onto his hand right between his thumb and forefinger! As he quietly cursed beneath his breath and removed the reptile in question, he said "It's a turtle!!" I can still hear his laugh. We actually joked about this only 2 years ago, when we reconnected on Facebook. I hope you Yvonne, and family find comfort in the memories and knowing how much he will be missed by many. As Carol referred to him Farewell Mr. Bond.

— Jody Ainley (nee Skoreyko)

Dear Yvonne - Carson and I always shared a joke together (it was actually about a cruelty call regarding a goldfish!). His open smile and warm presence never failed to make me feel welcome. He was a wonderful character and remains in my heart that way. I am of course saddened but I'm sure you are terribly shocked and at a loss over his passing.

This weekend is our AGM which I'm heavily involved in so will be thinking of both you and he rather than attending his Celebration of Life - with best thoughts for you and a warm 'adieu" to Carson - Jamie

— Jamie Lawson

I fondly recall the years we were together. We shared art, painting signs, calligraphy and writing flyers. We talked about faith, church and theology. And then the difficult relationships and the emotional anguish. Tortured souls on a road in search of healing. The playful teasing (the Dutch vs the Scottish) and humor. Lots of laughing. I am happy to have been your friend Carson. Thanks for the email messages and telephone conversations.

Rest in Peace Carson

— Jan de Bree
