My mother was/is a one of a kind. Generous, forgiving, kind, out going, very memorable and truly wise. Ive learned many valuable life skills, values.
Ma's teachings are still strong with me to this day. Her passion and perfectionism in her hobbies pushed me to excell at my own hobbies.
I will miss the talks with her when i was down and needed an ear or a reality check. Trimming the hedges (graveyard) because the wasps would freak her out.
Ill miss her morning pictures of spiderwebs, owls or grouse.
I miss her laugh and funny giggle, her serious tone when saying "Derek" and miss her pulling my ear when needed and sharing a bottle of wine on family dinners and getting a lil funny. I could go on and on.
She touched many lives and has many great freinds that im proud of. She truly was a one of a kind special woman.

— Derek Wollbaum

You will always be missed Marg. Always.

Our deepest condolences to Ric and his family. We were so saddened to learn of Marg's passing but recognize how lucky we were to have known her, even if it was so long ago.

Although we lost touch over the years, you were always in our thoughts.

Warm regards.
