James Dean Woloshen

OCTOBER 15, 2024

It is with profound sadness we announce the sudden passing of James (Dean) Woloshen on October 15, 2024, in Hope, B.C. at the age of 63.

Dean was born August 12, 1961, in Minnedosa, Manitoba. He is survived by his partner Lisa Wrubleski, his children Charlene (Kole) Woloshen and Jake (Dakota) Woloshen. Brother Darcy (Monica) Woloshen, niece Chelsea (Tyler) Woloshen, Step-Mother Pat Langdale, Uncle Lloyd Morris.

Dean was predeceased by his Father, Albert Woloshen 2023, Mother, Eileen McPetrie 2010 and infant Brother James Woloshen 1960.

Dean grew up in Winnipeg and moved to B.C. in 1980 with the family. He became a welder/fabricator and worked on many construction projects throughout B.C. In 2004, Dean found his true passion opening up his own auto body repair shop. Unfortunately, Dean suffered life-changing injuries in a freak workplace accident in 2017 and was forced to retire.

Dean had a passion for motorcycles and lived a true biker lifestyle. He had a unique sense of humour and love for family and friends. He will be remembered forever and greatly missed.

A private family gathering was held October 25, 2024.

Messages of Condolence

I love you dad, I’ll cherish the memories and all the lessons you taught me. Thanks for being the light to the dark days and forgiving me always

— Charlene woloshen

oh sorry to hear about Dean's passing I was wondering why I hasn't heard from him in awhile
