

Wallace Bernard Wright

DECEMBER 8, 2011

It is with sadness we announce the passing of Wallace Bernard Wright, of Dickson, Alberta, on Thursday, December 8, 2011; just shy of his 88th birthday.

Wallace was born December 9, 1923 to Edward and Elizabeth Wright. He is survived by Irene, his wife of 63 years; daughter Delores (Nick) Hudak; sons Doug (Nina), Edward (Corinne), Lee (Janice); 12 grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; sister Marie Kimball as well as numerous nieces and nephews. Wallace is predeceased by his parents; brothers Gordon, John, Howard and Douglas, as well as 4 step-brothers, and 1 step-sister.

Wallace worked on the family dairy farm, and did odd jobs until moving to Alberta in 1947, where he met and married Irene Snyder, of Kathryn, Alberta. They raised their four children while he ran service stations in Calgary. In 1965 they moved to Worsley, Alberta where Wallace opened a Texaco station. During his years in Worsley, he ran the service station, farmed and worked in the oil patch in the Arctic. In 1984, Wallace and Irene moved to Nova Scotia. Wallace and Irene resided in Tatamagouche, Nova Scotia until 2002 when they moved to Dickson, Alberta.

Wallace requested there be no funeral service, and will be buried in the Pinegrove Cemetery in Stewiacke, Nova Scotia.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the charity of one's choice.

Messages of condolence may be left for the family.

Messages of Condolence

We would like to express our condolences to Irene Wright and family on the loss of husband, father and grandfather, Wally Wright.

— Pat & Gerald Raspberry

Deepest sympathies on the passing of Uncle Wally.

My prayers are with aunt Irene and Family.

May God grant you strength and compassion in your grief.

Gary

— Gary Howard Wright

<https://www.myalternatives.ca/obituaries/wright-wallace-bernard>

Printed on June 3, 2026