May the sun rise in front of me, the rain fall behind me, and the wind follow me. May the angels guard my travels for they know what is ahead of me and keep me safe through rolling hills and winding roads.

Ray was an amazing man. We had many spirited debates over “special” coffee at our kitchen table. He was an adopted grandpa for my grandsons Hunter and Viktor, a confidante and friend …. Ken and I and all our kids were lucky to have known him and to have been able to call him friend. Condolences to all Condolences to family and friends of Ray, he was the sweetest kindest man I ever met. Always on the go or texting me “hey you wanna go for breakfast or dinner “ not Sushi” then we would sit and talk for hours or until the waitress would say “Can I get you anything else” that would be our clue we had stayed too long. Very brave man and I love and miss him.
